

Revised Readmission Policy

Readmission for students in good standing is restricted to students who have been absent from the college for three or more terms. This is a change from the previous policy, which allowed readmission after two or more terms.